

Role of the Workforce Development Board as defined in the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

13 key functions

- Provide program oversight including selection of one-stop operators and service providers
- Develop strategies for technology use that maximizes effectiveness and accessibility
- Certify WorkSource Centers including assessing the physical and programmatic accessibility
- Negotiate and execute memoranda of understanding and cost sharing agreements with workforce system partners
- Lead efforts to engage employers
- Identify and promote proven and promising practices in workforce development
- Provide analysis of regional labor market conditions
- Coordinate services with education and training partners
- Convene, broker and leverage efforts with local workforce stakeholders
- Lead efforts to develop and implement career pathways
- Develop a local plan in accordance with Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act requirements
- Negotiate local performance accountability with state and federal funders
- Develop and manage the Workforce Development Board including budget and administration